What our team says about working for Northern Powergrid

"I have worked in the contact centre at Northern Powergrid for just over four years and have loved every minute. I love the fact it's medium-sized as it allows you to build up close relationships with your colleagues which is not always possible in larger contact centres, it does feel like a family. The support, encouragement and flexibility has been exceptional. The progression opportunities are amazing no matter what career path you want to explore. I feel honoured and proud that I am part of an award-winning team working alongside the best people. I have previously worked in other contact centres, but Northern Powergrid has been the best by far." Nicola Chipp
